

LINKING MIXED-USE DEVELOPMENTS TO ANCHOR INSTITUTIONS:

Widener University, Chester City, PA

Anchor institutions as the driving force in neighborhood revitalization is a great idea in theory. In Chester City, Widener University is making it a successful reality. This 3-part seminar will allow participants to hear first-hand how a strong partnership led by the University was able to implement a new mixed-use development that will create a stronger community.

- 1
- 2
- 3

Creating Opportunities for the Development of Mixed-Use Developments
Ahsan Nasratullah, Teres Holdings

Using New Market Tax Credits in Mixed-Use Developments
Don Hinkle-Brown, The Reinvestment Fund

Public Sector Support in the Implementation of Mixed-Use Developments
David Schiochetti, City of Chester

Date: Friday, February 22, 2008
 Time: 8:00AM Registration
 8:30AM - 12:00PM Program
 Location: DVRPC
 190 N. Independence Mall West, 8th Floor
 Philadelphia, PA

Cost: $20 (PPA Members)
 $30 (Non-PPA Members)
 Includes light breakfast
 Credit: 3 AICP Continuing Education Credits
 *(currently pending approval from APA)

Name: _____ AICP
 Organization: _____
 Address: _____

 City, State, Zip _____
 Telephone: _____
 Fax: _____
 E-mail: _____

Space is limited! To reserve your spot,
 please send a check (payable to PPA SE) to:

Jody Holton - KSK
 123 S Broad St #1270
 Philadelphia, PA 19107

PPA Member: $20
 Non-PPA Member: $30

