

Energy and Climate Change

Planners' Role and Challenge

American Planning Association
Pennsylvania Chapter

October 4-6
Dolce Valley Forge

Carron Day, AICP

Planning-Associates.com

cday@Planning-Associates.com

Neale Montgomery, Esq.

PaveseLaw.com

NealeMontgomery@PaveseLaw.com

Energy and Climate Change

Planners are positioned to integrate energy and climate change concerns into planning, zoning and development regulations This session will:

- Address new energy and climate change concepts
- Identify unintentional barriers
- Address untapped possibilities in land use plans, zoning and land development regulations
- Present concepts from around the country and elsewhere

Carron Day, AICP
Planning-Associates.com
cday@Planning-Associates.com

Neale Montgomery, Esq.
PaveseLaw.com
NealeMontgomery@PaveseLaw.com

Energy and Climate Change

Link to:

www.planning-associates.com

for a complete copy of our presentation and references

Carron Day, AICP
Planning-Associates.com
cday@Planning-Associates.com

Neale Montgomery, Esq.
PaveseLaw.com
NealeMontgomery@PaveseLaw.com